

SAMPLE LIEN WAIVER

This is a sample of a lien waiver that should be typed on the back of all checks for the payment of services for those contracted to do specific work around the church like remodeling, electrical or plumbing.

This will prevent the church from being liable for materials that you paid the contractor for, but the contractor did not pay the supplier.

The payee, by endorsement hereof, guarantees that all labor and material for which this check is in payment, has been performed or delivered on the premises herein described:

The payee certifies that such labor and material have been paid in full, and in consideration for this payment hereby waives and releases all lien rights upon the improvements situated on the said premises to the date hereof.

and that such labor and material has been paid for in full and such payee, in consideration of the payment hereof, hereby waives and releases all lien rights upon the improvements situated on said premises to the date hereof.
